

MATT NAGY

QUARTERBACKS

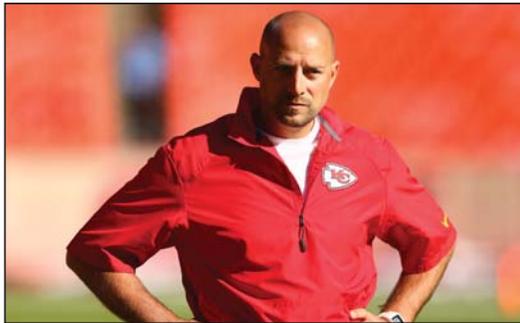

- 5th NFL Season
- 2nd with Chiefs

Matt Nagy enters his second season in Kansas City as the Chiefs quarterbacks coach in 2014. He is in his fifth season as an NFL assistant coach.

In his first year with the Chiefs, Nagy worked with QB Alex Smith in a season that brought him five 100.0 plus quarterback ratings, one of which was a perfect rating of 158.3 at Oakland (12/15/14). Focusing on ball protection, he coached Smith to a league-low seven interceptions with a minimum of 300 attempts and a 1.4 interception percentage, also the lowest in the NFL. Smith's interception percentage in the 2013 season has him solidified as the third-best single season mark in franchise history. Smith also earned his first Pro Bowl selection following his first season with the Chiefs in 2013.

Before joining the Chiefs coaching staff, Nagy spent three years on the offensive staff of the Philadelphia Eagles, most recently serving two seasons as the franchise's offensive quality control coach (2011-12). He was promoted to that role after he served as a coaches assistant during the 2010 campaign. His initial experience with the Eagles came in 2008 and 2009 as he served as a coaching intern during Eagles training camp.

A former quarterback for the Arena Football League, Nagy played six seasons for the New York Dragons (2002), Carolina Cobras (2004), Georgia Force (2005-06) and Columbus Destroyers (2007-
